

GOALIE CAMP INFORMATION

The Hockey Academy of St. Louis is committed to providing youth goalies of the St. Louis area with an instructional camp featuring pro-style instruction, challenging game situation drills and Bruce Racine, St. Louis' own full-time goalie coach.

These professional instructors have developed a program with on-ice and off-ice training and strength conditioning components. By using these two facets of training, goalies receive the tools and techniques to improve their overall game.

In addition, St. Louis Blues players Bryce Salvador and Jamal Mayers will take shots on each goalie, allowing every camper to square off against professional players.

TESTIMONIALS

"Bruce's impressive professional goalie experience, game knowledge and communication skills have provided the edge for my son's advancement." - John Bean, Webster Groves, MO

"Bruce Racine is a great coach who shares his passion of goaltending easily with kids of all ages. He tailors to the individual player, no matter what level of play. Excellent instructor and well worth the investment!"

- Tim and Stephanie Stephens, St. Louis, MO

"Really nice coach who helps me be the goalie I want to be." - Sam Stephens, Affton Americans Mite, Age 7

GOALIE CAMP INSTRUCTORS

Bruce Racine leads Hockey Academy of St. Louis' Goalie Camp as main instructor and program designer. Racine's 15-year professional career included a stint with the St.

Louis Blues, a 1991 Stanley Cup with the Pittsburgh Penguins and a 1989 Turner Cup with the Muskegon Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League (IHL).

Bruce broke into the NHL with the Penguins in the 1990-91 season and was part of a squad that included hockey legends Mario Lemieux, Jaromir Jagr and Paul Coffey. Racine teamed with Blues great Grant Fuhr and Jon Casey in the 1995/96 season. That team included Wayne Gretzky, Brett Hull and Al MacInnis. Racine was a two-time All American at Northeastern University in Boston. In his career, Bruce has played under Mike Keenan, Scotty Bowman, Bob Johnson, Darryl Sutter and Pat Burns.

Bruce and his team of qualified instructors designed the Goalie Camp's program based on their professional playing and training experiences.
